
Prayer Bulletin

From the Principal ...

In this issue of the Prayer Bulletin I want to take the opportunity to give great thanks to God for the completion of the building project that has dominated life at College over the past two years. Not so long ago I was shown a copy of Southern Cross from June 1966, which included an appeal for a new building on King Street. It was to be a multi-story building with accommodation and teaching rooms. So the plans to develop the King Street site go back that far at least! Now the Lord has made possible the answer to those prayers and dreams.

I hope many of you will be able to join us at 2:30pm on 11 February 2017 for the official opening by the Governor of New South Wales. It will be a time of celebrating the goodness of God to us in answer to many of your prayers.

Of course buildings are only buildings. They do not last forever. What is more important, and more lasting, is what goes on inside the building. We are praying that in this new building, men and women will be shaped by the word of God and prepared to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to all the nations of the world. I have long been struck by the powerful note of certainty in Jesus' words to his disciples recorded in Matthew 24:14 — 'And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come'. It must happen this way. Only when the whole world has heard will the summing up of all things commence. We want this new building to be used in the service of that great mission. Beautiful architecture is a generous gift of our heavenly Father, granting human beings the joy of making beautiful things just as he has done. But we mustn't get carried away by the sandstone façade and the soaring glass windows. What really matters is Christ and his glory and preparing men and women to publish his name in all the world.

Please keep praying that we will remain focussed on what really matters, that our hearts will be full of thanksgiving for all the good gifts our heavenly Father has given us, and that the Lord will send many more people to train at Moore to take the gospel to our city and our world.
